enide): Mr. Chairman, take eiy bitune debate, anum draw eiy wam attention Mr. Chairman, me invite eiyuw bwe wo num agree ame ngana pwer-gugu ne me invite eiyuw bed iya wo agree ame bwe wo num vote epo ame.

Mr. Chairman, ouge amea Minister for Finance “despite the problems mentioned above, government has chosen to proceed in the remaining months to continue with the very essential requirements”. Me ang riring Suva Office ngage bwe government budget eiy 1,200 dogin won travel and transfer business purposes bita office. One thousand two hundred me ngage ura redoa gata me ura kongaten above that, thirty thousand.

This, Mr. Chairman, is an increase of 2,500 percent. Ouga an out won budget bitune government, 2,500 percent. Ateng draw eiy wam attention ea me that of the Committee ngana tsinia 2,500 an gaturae am budget, something is serious. Ogen, aea in me ura ouge ea gata ngana “as at April 1994, bitune office ogiten spend eiy 27,881. Dogorin ata epo bed, aroweiy aroweiy bed an eo dogin ani the nearest whole number. Tsinia 27,881 the nearest figure which government should request should be 28,000? Why have they come and requested 30,000 instead of 28,000? Wonga question ngea.

Secondly, ngana mungana details ura totu ine, ura ouge iyon dogin audo 26,500 me iyon eiy 1,000 me meta ngea bita total me eiy 27,510 contrary ea bita won statement amea Minister for Finance. Ngune ngune bitune aura ouge, essential requirements? Is this essential? Ouge anga no, komamedo muk ngune. Komamedo muk, inefficiency, bad management, me ta improvident ata riring wora muk, ngea anan teng seek eiy won explanation amea Minister bwe a eo ibibogi eiy bwe tsimine imin gaturae ine. Buduga me eo gaturae bita office me ang ita egirowa ura me really in fact ura ngabuna ura dura. Gona bed iya gaturae ngona audo me ura eo teng iya ura nim replace eiy, me ngage gona bed tsimine ngana available fifteen thousand me amebune eo teng iya enim replace me ngea amea essential an tengeiy audo nuwa me ani in

Ngea bita matter bed iyon ateng raise eiy ine, ngaga bed ang iedin bwe ekongan 26,510 ngune emuk ekongaun bituno emuk ogiten spend eiy from September 1993 to April 1994. That comes up to 26,510.00 me ita ngana, eden from April, May and June? Inga emuk kongau dogin bitune, bwe Mr.
Chairman, on the basis of that calculation for travel and transfer subhead 255, on the basis of 26,510.00 for eight months that means an average of 3,313.17 per month. Tsinia iyu aro month, wo nim multiply eiy ngea bita per month Ubenide): I see. Thank you.

Mr. L. Keke (Member for Yaren): Mr. Chairman, ateng ken reiterate eiy eken mungana points amea Member for Ubenide oreit pan bwe dogin smooth eiyen murane wora supplementary budget. Amea Minister for Finance ian won speech, pan ngana ngea moni iyon ngea ogiten incur ngune 27,881.01 me kongaten thirty thousand. Ngea bita thirty thousand enim cover eiy car rental 26,510.00 five trips me mungana oreit eke per diem one thousand, total twenty-seven thousand five hundred and ten. Thirty thousand ngea ekongan me tsinia enim owonon twenty seven thousand five hundred and ten inan rengo dugdugin two thousand four hundred and ninety. Ngune two thousand four hundred and ninety eo accountable oa eo mention eiy ine, ita iya amea Minister ouge ngana ngune bitune bwait fuel dogin won amea audo, amea Consul-General. Otherwise practice ngana government eo gona ita assume eiy ngana nan ita odon ange ngana mungana two thousand bwe bwait ekenoken. Enim tsimine subhead dogin bita amount, eo gona iya enim ita totu ina eko dogin. Dogin bwe ngea bita Wangara round-off figure thirty thousand, difference ngea ouga. Otherwise round off figure, common practice should be twenty eight thousand and not thirty thousand. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. V. Detenamo (Minister for Finance-Buada): Mr. Chairman, kaiyot ngana won debate amerumina me animen ngago ngana ang specific, me ekeow bwe etik boil down bita policy me an dura edogor mungane. An dura edogor mungano. Animen ngago ang nim aea thirty thousand, what does that consist of? Specifics, towe amea amen makur ian Suva. Ngana mungana inon ogiten patow iyan wonga second reading debate, eimwi bwe amerumina enum tsied me House enum tsied ngana ngana ngana debates bwain iyat second reading debate.

Mr. Adeang (Member for Ubenide) : Mr. Chairman, eo deri eo satisfying an reply amea Minister. Aiki dogin. The problem ngaga aikin, bwe eiy totu in bwe ang num detail eiy ngage. Ngane ngane details ma ogiten oudo. Twenty seven thousand ngea eiy pana kama bwe ura need eiy, bwe enum meet eiy expenses. Ita twenty seven ngana eiy detail eiya kama, me ita dogin ngaga eiy kongang muk, kongain thirty thousand without any explanation. Ed, ma num ita approve eiy emuk iyon without explanation bwe on record ngane, we go by the record. Over two thousand ngea bita, we are talking details, over two thousand ngea unexplained. Eden, bitune House enum ita totu emuk iyon on an ad hoc basis, ita burioun? Ngaga eagada ben amea Consul iyan Suva nan etenamwnanin ngea bita two thousand iya Parliament eo earmark eiy? Nan eke eken, won entertainment allowance? Oa otow I ngea bita extra eo budget eiy?

Ngune ngune eo deri pathetic wora imin iya ouga wora min. Amea Minister does he honestly believe ngana he has the right to ask the Committee to pass an appropriation of money without his explanation? And with his asking for it without reason? Eko won reasons. Me eden? Me tsinia ouge ita amar oneiy, yes ana suggest eiya ngana it could be me eiy eo pan ngana it could be bwain murowa aro maramwen, he will need six thousand six hundred ngea inan need eiy. That means he should be asking here for thirty thousand ngea tengeiy, therefore aiki ngea imin anim riring anga. Me akonga edogor bwe ura nim see their way clear, at some stage now or later, iya tsimine legal requirement ngana bitune Parliament enim gona well as expenditure as we have already done every year. Me ngune ngune imin ateng bwe edogor enim kamarar eiy because as I said, Article 59 (4) requires liament estimates of expenditure and revenue, when we get our Appropriation Bills, we have one part revenue and one part expenditure, but we have done nothing over the years up till now except to argue and deliberate on the expenditure side of that presentation but do not deal with the revenue. And I say Parliament must be able to discuss revenue as well as expenditure, under Article 59, section 4.

Mr. Speaker, just one last point. Ngune point ateng pan ngage, ogiten kudoiy iyan bitune House during question time without notice, me ogiten bed argue eiy aton me ine iyan, me ita kor ateng ngage abu bitune opportunity bwe anim kan remind eiya government bwe ura nim see their way clear to investigate and look into bitune imin ngune memori, mungana an transfer engame eadu iyan Ubenide dogin wangara by-election. Ogen bed iya legal iyat dedein iyon, if they meet the criteria, me bituno principle behind mungana movements an memori engame iyat tekawa bwe ita kor dogit election, in principle ura nim aea iya eimwi oa pwer. Dogin bwe tsinia ita kor engame memori eadu iyat tekawa for that particular election, me nan og me nan tik redon adu bwiora, nan oturaiy won results mungana by-elections. Me eab ita oturaiy a particular by-election, for example ngage Ubenide tsinia engame memori eadu ina for the sole reason ngana ura nim tuwin kiyiy me og me inan bwiora ngin bwe they are not to be permanent on the electoral roll for that particular district, ogen in principle the essence of it eo eimwi. Nan oturaiy memak won validity mungana general elections me mungana by-elections iyan Naoero imur iya government eo ewedoduwa ngage an memori mibuna engame eadu iyan mungana tekawa dogit by-election bwe it is a serious matter. It is a serious matter me animen government bed ogiten realise eiy ngana, for example ngana many years back, an pudu amea Premier of the Cook Islands eat edae iya, the late Sir Albert Henry, pudun atsin ean godan dogin ngage nene, ngana mungana movements iyan districts, eo tain eiy eow turin amebuna councillors.
